The Ocean Song from Jbrary

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e5tWFO_SSY8

Oh the ocean is great and the ocean is grand.
There are lots of tall ships and very little land.
And we sleep down deep in a hammock near the floor

And this is what we do when we go out the door:

We ride the waves going up,
we ride the waves going down
We ride the waves going up,
we ride the waves going down
We ride the waves going up,
we ride the waves going down
And we turn around.

Early Literacy Tip:

Babies learn best by doing! Acting out opposites helps babies understand their meanings. Understanding differences is an important step in recognizing the differences in how letters look.
