Work and Play in New York's Finger Lakes

What makes Ithaca unique? There is an energy you can feel that truly stands out. It could be the towering waterfalls, lush ice-age gorges, and endless panoramic views. Or maybe it's the hiking, the biking, the boating, or the beauty of Cayuga Lake, the longest of the Finger Lakes.

But perhaps it's something more. Maybe it's the buzz from Cornell University and Ithaca College. You feel it everywhere—in our museums, our galleries, and in our restaurants. You hear it in our wineries, theaters, and our Finger Lakes festivals. It grips you as you peruse the fresh produce, local crafts, and art at our renowned Ithaca Farmers Market. You see it downtown on our pedestrian mall, the Ithaca Commons, where PhDs cross paths with street musicians and families stroll the solar system on an interactive "planet walk." You experience it in Ithaca's hotels, B&B's and waterfront cabins.

The bumper stickers say, "Ithaca is Gorges," but it's more than that. Ithaca is beautiful, smart, and always unexpected. It's intense but also laid-back and disdainful of convention. Ithaca is Ithaca. There's a vibe here unlike anywhere else in America. And experiencing it is the only way to discover it. Visit the Visit Ithaca website to learn more about the community "Where great minds meet the great outdoors."

Located in the heart of Ithaca's urban core, TCPL is a one-seat ride on regional transit from virtually anywhere in Tompkins County.

Tompkins County Public Library

A Fine-Free, Forward-Looking Library that Celebrates Diversity

Located in Ithaca, New York, and founded by Ezra Cornell in 1864, the Tompkins County Public Library is an award-winning library with a storied history. It serves the nearly 102,000 residents of Tompkins County, as well as library users at 32 other libraries in four neighboring counties through its role as the Central Library for the Finger Lakes Library System.

TCPL is celebrating 25 years at its current, modernized home in 2025.

TCPL's central vision is to create a library "where everyone can belong and find joy in learning, discovery, and personal growth." Fine free since 2019, the Library has been recognized nationally for its diverse picture book collection, and locally for its commitment to serving all segments of the population, particularly youth and marginalized communities.

The Library has designated areas for children, teens, and adults, and a dedicated quiet space in the Ezra Cornell Reading Room. In addition to the typical books, magazines, newspapers, DVDs, CDs, audiobooks, and a rapidly growing digital collection, the Library also features an extensive graphic novel and manga collection for both youth and adults.

More Than Books

Inside TCPL you will find dedicated spaces aimed at making the Library a community hub.

The Digital Lab and Makerspace offer opportunities to learn from local experts using high tech tools such as 3D printers, a laser cutter, sewing and embroidery machines, recording equipment, art & craft supplies, and much more.

Those spaces include a dedicated Digital Lab, Local History room, Makerspace, Teen Center, meeting and study spaces, and large community rooms for community and library events, such as the February 2025 visit from Pulitzer Prize-winning MLK biographer Jonathan Eig. You will also find a Library of Things which offers free access to local attractions, a seed library, and an assortment of items that allow people to try out hobbies or borrow a critical item they may only need for a short time.

The Library offers programs and outreach events for all ages, including resource fairs, tax preparation, seasonal outdoor story hours, science fairs, art exhibits, digital training at senior residential homes, and a large presence in the annual Ithaca Pride Festival.

TCPL is also home to a free NARCAN vending machine that is part of its Information Saves Lives project, which uses funds from an opioid settlement and an anonymous donation to the Tompkins County Public Library Foundation to promote harm reduction and combat the opioid epidemic.

A free NARCAN vending machine unveiled in 2024.

Community Support

The community is passionate about its Library, which benefits from the devoted support of key local allies. The Friends of the Tompkins County Public Library holds some of the largest book sales in the country twice a year. The sale is so well known the Friends own the website booksale.org. Generous grants from the Friends support Library collections and programs, as well as literacy efforts throughout the Finger Lakes.

Another valuable ally is the Tompkins County Public Library Foundation, which supports the Library through fundraising and inspiring community support. The Foundation serves as a bridge between the Library and the community, encouraging engagement through philanthropy and participation. Recent fundraising efforts include an annual Read-a-Thon, semi-annual Silent Reading Parties, and a new digital donation kiosk in the Library dubbed “Ezra Coin-ell.”

Guided by the input of patrons and non-users alike, the Library’s Board of Trustees and Community Relations Committee are crafting a new strategic plan, which will put patrons, inclusivity, and access front and center. The Plan aims to build on our organization’s first-ever equity statement, which demonstrates our unwavering commitment to ensuring TCPL is a place for everyone, and our values express that which we hold most dear. Learn more by visiting the library’s website.

Equity Statement

Tompkins County Public Library (TCPL) believes that the library is for everyone. We value diverse opinions and respect free speech. Different points of view are allowed and welcomed.

TCPL also supports patrons' right to a library environment free of harassment and intimidation. TCPL views all manifestations of prejudice and intolerance that target particular individuals or interfere with patrons' ability to use the library as contradictory to our mission and violations of our Code of Conduct. We expect patrons and staff to contribute to a welcoming environment.

Governance

The Tompkins County Public Library is governed by a Board of Trustees (the Board) appointed by the Tompkins County Legislature. Trustees are bound by the duties of integrity, responsibility, respect, and loyalty.

The Board is accountable to the:

- Library's mission and cultural heritage
- Values and principles that guide and shape the library's mission
- Public interest and public trust
- Legitimate and relevant interests of the Library's various constituencies.

The Board broadly defines the mission of the Library, determines generally the types of programs the Library will offer, and is ultimately accountable for the quality of the Library experience. The Board also bears special responsibility to help the Library anticipate natural or manmade disasters or other crises that may profoundly disrupt the operation and/or financial stability of the institution.

Maintaining the Library's fiscal integrity is fundamental to the Board's responsibilities. The Board bears ultimate legal responsibility for approving the Library's annual budget and for monitoring the Library's fiscal welfare. The Board is the ultimate fiduciary of the Library, even though day-to-day operations are properly delegated to its administration.

One of the Board's most important duties is to select a Library Director who provides vision and leadership for both the library and our greater community. The Board also determines the Director's compensation and assesses the Director's performance.

The Position

The Tompkins County Public Library Director is a New York State Civil Service position hired through the Tompkins County Department of Human Resources. The full job description and minimum qualifications are available on the Tompkins County website.

Minimum Qualifications

Graduation from an ALA-accredited school or program with a graduate degree in library or information studies and possession of—or eligibility for—a New York State Public Librarian's Professional Certificate and eight years of satisfactory professional library experience in a library of recognized standing, two years of which must have been in an administrative capacity.<sup>1</sup>

Summary of Essential Duties

As a professional librarian and leader under the general direction of the Board of Trustees, the Library Director has overall responsibility for carrying out the goals and objectives of the Tompkins County Public Library and for supervising its professional librarians and support staff. This responsibility includes the management of annual and long-range planning, service delivery, comprehensive programs, government relations, public and community relations, physical facilities, fiscal affairs, resource development, personnel and labor relations, and compliance with all laws and regulations. The Director also ensures that the library goals and objectives reflect the library's strategic plan, including its mission statement and the needs of populations to be served, and that these goals and objectives are communicated to the library's public. The Director performs all related duties as required.

Civil Service

The Civil Service governs the hiring of the Library's director, and the majority of its employees. This position does require participation in a Civil Service Exam, although it is not an exam in the traditional sense. Rather, the exam is a "Training and Experience Exam" that is essentially a list of questions regarding the candidate's education and experience as relevant to the director position. To learn more, please visit the New York State Library Association Guide to Civil Service in New York State.

<sup>1</sup> Administrative experience shall include—but not be limited to—at least two activities such as institutional planning, organizing, budgeting, communicating, or any other experience that would be considered qualifying as determined by the Tompkins County Commissioner of Human Resources.
