PUBLISHER'S NOTES.

—Ingalls & Co. by frequent notices in the middle of the Directory pages, advise you where to go for boots, shoes, rubbers, trunks, satchels, &c.

—The smiling face of John Francis can be found on page 103. Look at him and read what he has to say.

—Blackman Bros. This enterprising firm deals in groceries and provisions at L. S. McWhorter's old stand. Read what they say on page 87.

—Cook Bros., florists, print an illustrated advertisement on page 88. Read what they have to say.

—J. R. Crawford, D. D. S., has something to tell you on page 92 and 140. He guarantees all work in his line first-class.

—William B. Krum deals in coal, wood, plaster, grain, &c., at the South Hill coal yard. His advertisement appears on page 57.

—Slocum & Boyer of 122 North Aurora St., can supply you with anything you need from a first-class meat market. Read their card on page 57 and give them a call.

—John M. Wilgus, architect, room 6 Wilgus Block, calls your attention to his advertisement on page 65.

—B. W. Ross & Co., dealers in pure Cayuga Lake ice, publish an advertisement on page 201.

—S. Alfred Seely, of Spencer, N. Y., prints a neat card on page 204. Read what he says and write him for prices.

—Ithaca Carpet Cleaning and Upholstering Co., publish an illustrated advertisement on page 207. This is a boon to housekeepers, and should be appreciated by all.

—A. M. Seaman advertises his Novelty Works on page 137. His work is first-class and prices reasonable.

—Prepare for Old Winter by giving your order to the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., who print an attractive card on page 145.

—The Weekly Ithacan claims the attention of the public on page 153.

—Have your valuables secure by renting an apartment in the Safe deposit department of The Tompkins Co. National Bank, who publish an advertisement on page 157.

—The Ithaca Democrat, Ward Gregory, editor and publisher, is well represented on page 119.

—G. C. McClune, dealer in flagging, cut and building stone, prints an illustrated advertisement on back cover, and also on page 129. His work is first-class and prices reasonable. We cheerfully recommend him to the patronage of the public.

—Jamieson & McKinney print an illustrated advertisement on page 132. These modern plumbers, steam and gas fitters, have facilities for executing work in a first-class and satisfactory manner, as will be found by giving them a trial. A word to the wise is sufficient.

—Adam Emig, prop. of the Ithaca Hotel Barber Shop and Bath Rooms, prints an attractive card on page 110. Everything in his establishment is first-class.

—Chr. Hansen, manufacturer of Yacht Sails, Awnings, Tents, &c., does all work in his line in first-class shape. He can be found at 38 and 40 W. State. See his card on page 114.

—Harmon Hill, dealer in coal and wood, requests you to read his advertisement on page 116.

—A. B. Wood, publishes an attractive card on page 44. We cheerfully recommend him to all in need of the services of a first-class Architect.

—F. G. Alexander publishes an illustrated advertisement on page 44 which gives full information to those in need of a contractor and builder. His work is executed in a workmanlike manner, and his prices reasonable.

—Joel Hanford prints an attractive card on page 43. Those in need of a first-class piano, organ, or sewing machine should give him a call.

—The First National Bank of Ithaca publish a card on page 49 to which we would call the attention of our patrons.

—Peterman & Smith of Seneca Falls, N. Y., call your attention to their advertisement on page 49.

—J. L. Watkins issues a neat card on pages 49 and 174. He guarantees to do all kinds of carriage making and repairing in a workmanlike manner. Give him a call.

—Eugene Baker, physician and surgeon, publishes a card on page 57 to which we would call the attention of the public.

—E. D. Evans, prop. of the University art gallery, calls your attention to his frequent lines in the middle of Directory pages. His work is unsurpassed in Central N. Y.

—J. E. Van Natta, prop. of Sylvan Park Mills, prints an attractive card on page 70, to which we take pleasure in calling the attention of our patrons and the public generally.

—W. H. Willson, the People's Hatter, will attract your attention by his frequent lines in the middle of Directory pages. Read what he has to say and give him a call. His stock is the largest and best in the city.
