50 YEARS --

of ABSOLUTE PROTECTION
at LOWEST COST

IN 1887 a group of leading citizens headed by Otis E. Wood, organized the Tompkins County Co-operative Fire Insurance Company. It was founded as a cooperative effort to provide dependable fire insurance at lowest possible cost to residents and business men of Ithaca and vicinity.

RAPID growth followed the popular demand for this form of insurance and in 1910, a new law made it possible to do business in all counties of New York state except Greater New York. Subsequently it was deemed expedient to drop the word "County" from its name.

AFFILIATED with the Associated Co-operative Fire Insurance Companies of New York State it participates with 16 other companies in fire prevention and protection engineering. An added safeguard to each policy holder.
