Church Covenant.

The following is the covenant of its members with the church on their reception either by letter or on confession of faith: You do now avouch the Lord to be your God, Jesus Christ to be your Saviour and Master, the Holy Spirit to be your Sanctifier. For the forgiveness of your sins, for the renewal of your heart and for hope of Heaven, you do thank and praise and love the ever Blessed Trinity.

You do now dedicate yourself, (or selves) body, soul and estate to his holy service forever, and give yourself joyfully to his church, promising to study its peace, its growth in grace and in numbers and the increase of its activities and usefulness. You will attend and maintain its ordinances, you will live in Christian harmony and love with all its members, and yield yourself to its watch and care and government. You will avoid all that should endanger its good name or mar the unity of its spirit, and will do all that in you lies to build up and establish the Kingdom of God here and through all the world.

For all this you do humbly rely on the spirit and grace of God.

Do you thus solemnly covenant with us in the presence of God and these witnesses?" Ans. "I do."

(The church rising). And we in the name of Jesus Christ, welcome you to the fellowship of this His church, to the communion of all the saints on earth and in Heaven, to the table of the Lord, and to all the ordinances of grace. We will walk with you in love, will watch and pray for your weal, and hope to sit down with you by and by in fullness of joy at the marriage supper of the Lamb in his Heavenly Kingdom.

I pronounce you now fully constituted members of this branch of Christ's visible church, and as such, entitled to all its gracious ordinances.

“The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.”

NOTE—The Session earnestly enjoins upon each of the members of the church, the obligations of this covenant to attend regularly and devoutly all its services and means of grace on the Sabbath and during the week, to support its ordinances by such contributions of their substance as may be fitting, and to make some worthy gift each year to each of its great enterprises for the redemption of this land and of the whole world.

The Presbyterian church, while requiring of its pastors, elders and deacons, subscriptions “for substance of doctrine,” to an extended creed, imposes upon its private membership no tests but such as are essential to a real and vital faith in, and life of obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ.

As an Act of Worship

THE OFFERINGS OF THIS PEOPLE

WILL BE GATHERED EACH LORD'S-DAY.

The Morning offering of the SECOND Lord's Day in each month will be for the following :
