Every gleaner in the field of genealogical research has discovered errors of statement in printed volumes, which, left uncorrected, perpetuate inaccuracy to the end of time. This department has been established in an endeavor to furnish a formal method of correcting such inaccurate statements. Readers are requested to forward, for publication in this department, corrections of every such discovered error and also such additions to printed genealogies as may in time develop, in order that due publication of the same may

John Hampton Ford, died July 23, 1827, the same year he was born.

Nathaniel Hadden Ford, died July 28, 1827, the same year he was born.

A paper found in the old Family Bible, Perth Amboy, states:

"The house now 285 High Street (Perth Amboy, N. J.) was built by William Ford, Junior, his mother Margaret Ford providing the money. The land was bought Feb. 1, 1811, but the house was not built until some time after. William Ford, Jr., married Sarah Ross in 1800-1. They lived in Bonhampton where all the children were born. It is not positively known when the family moved to Perth Amboy, it may have been in 1816, as his mother and wife joined the Presbyterian Church in Perth Amboy that year. This house has been occupied by six generations: etc. *** William Ford, Jr. and three of his sons Samuel, William Jackson and Edwin were shoemakers and the business was continued in the house until the death of William Jackson Ford in 1853."

SOCIETY NOTES.

A Regular Meeting of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society was held on Friday evening, December 9, 1921, at 8.30, the President, Clarence Winthrop Bowen in the chair.

Mr. Bowen announced that since the last meeting of the Society information had been received of the death of Mrs. Roger Culver Tredwell, an Annual Member, who died in April, 1921, at the John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md. Mr. Bowen also announced the election of Henry Wysham Lanier, of No. 9 Sniffen Court, N. Y. City, as an Annual Member, proposed by John R. Totten.

The President then introduced the speaker of the evening, the Rev. Howard Duffield, D. D., former Governor of the Society of Colonial Wars of the State of New York and President of the St. Nicholas Society of New York City, who addressed the Society on the subject of "The Tolerant Spirit of the American Colonists."

At the close of Dr. Duffield's scholarly address, Mr. George Riker Bishop moved a hearty vote of thanks to the speaker for the entertainment furnished the Society by the instructive and delightful presentation of his topic; this motion was seconded by Mr. James Benedict and unanimously carried. The Rev. John Cornell also proffered a few remarks. Mr. Bowen then tendered to Dr. Duffield the thanks of the Society.

The meeting then adjourned to the Library for refreshments.

A Regular Meeting of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society was held on Friday evening, January 13, 1922, at 8.30 P. M. The meeting was called to order by the President, Clarence Winthrop Bowen, who announced the sudden death on December 27, 1921, in Brooklyn, N. Y., of Robert S. Swords, who for some twenty years had served the Society as its curator. Mr. Bowen spoke feelingly of the loss sustained by the death of Mr. Swords who had served the Society so long and with such rare fidelity, during which time he had become acquainted and on friendly terms with most all of its members.

Mr. Bowen then announced the death on December 23, 1921, of Hamilton Bullock Tompkins, an Annual Member of the Society, and also the death on January 2, 1922, of Miss Mary Van Buren Vanderpoel, an Annual Member of the Society.

The election of Erving Pruyn, as an Annual Member, proposed by John R. Totten, was announced, as was also the transfer of Thomas Jackson Oakley Rhinelander from the list of Annual Members to that of Life Members.

Mr. Bowen then introduced the speaker of the evening, His Excellency, The Ambassador from Spain to the United States, Señor Don Juan Riano, who told the interesting story of the Spanish Missions in California from their beginning until the Mexican War of 1846.

At the close of the Ambassador's most instructive and interesting address, a vote of thanks was moved by Cass Gilbert, Esq., in a few most graceful and pertinent remarks; this motion was seconded by the Rev. Henry A. Stimson, D. D., in a brief and yet most felicitous speech. The vote of thanks was unanimously carried and Mr. Bowen, in tendering the thanks of the Society to the guest of the evening, expressed also his high appreciation of the honor conferred upon the Society by His Excellency, The Ambassador.

The meeting then adjourned to the Library for refreshments.

The Annual Meeting of the Society was held at the Society's Hall, at 8.30 P. M., on Friday, February 10, 1922. The President, Clarence Winthrop Bowen, presided.

Mr. Bowen made a few remarks to the members relative to the condition of the Endowment Fund of the Society, which he was pleased to announce had reached the total of $100,000 in subscriptions paid in and pledged.

- Pp. 15, 21, 37.—A John Roelson and Merry Peek, both of Remsen's Boss, were m. 1788, Old Dutch Church, Schenectady, N. Y. It is difficult to determine whether this John Roelson is No. 12, No. 51 or No. 202 of this genealogy. If, perchance, it refers to Nos. 50-51, p. 21, it is clear that the wife's name was not Seward at the time of her marriage.

In the Rev. Dempster's Montgomery County baptisms and marriages, one Elizabeth Roelson married Jacob Moon and had a daughter Margaret Moon, bapt. 6-17-1781. It has been found impossible to locate this Elizabeth Roelson.

A Clarissa Rulofson, m. 9-19-1839, Leonard Hubbard, according to Cooperstown church records. It has been found impossible to locate this Clarissa Rulofson.
